

Weekly Media Monitor

Oct 28th - Nov 3rd, 2024

This week's major news updates in Pakistan's energy sector include:

- ➔ The air quality of the provincial capital of Punjab, Lahore, worsens to record highs with its Air Quality Index (AQI) showing that the concentration of particulate matter 2.5 in its air is 86.2 times higher than the value given in the annual air quality guideline of the World Health Organization (WHO).
- ➔ The provincial government of Sindh cites a study conducted at the Nelson Mandela University, South Africa, to claim that Thar coal gasification could reduce energy costs by 60 percent.
- ➔ Sui Northern Gas Pipelines Limited (SNGPL) and Sui Southern Gas Company Limited (SSGCL) seek 54 percent increase in gas prices to cover their fiscal deficit for fiscal year 2024-2025.
- ➔ Musadik Malik, federal minister for water resources, acknowledges that the federal government owes Khyber Pakhtunkhwa 38.925 billion rupees on account of net hydroelectric profits.
- ➔ Petroleum sales experience a surge in October 2024, reaching 1.49 million tonnes, owing to the government's strict action against petroleum smuggling.
